PREFACE

Realizing the beauty and the effect of two blended voices in harmony, and recognizing the demand for collated material for this purpose, the editor of these volumes, mindful of the fact that the efficiency of good music is not caused by its novelty, has here compiled standard duets from many sources and many an era. The composers represented in these volumes bespeak the character of the music. One volume, for two high voices, will be found equally desirable for two sopranos, for two tenors or for a soprano and tenor; another volume, for a high and low voice, will be found practicable for soprano and alto, for tenor and alto, for soprano and baritone.

The two volumes form a rare and varied collection of sacred song, invaluable to vocalists for use in churches and in sacred concerts. They will be of great assistance to the student in the formation of a classical style of singing. The teacher will find that the mutual support of the voices develops in the pupil a feeling of confidence which will lend encouragement in solo-singing for public performances.

Believing that music is the infinite language, and that there is a marvelous relation between music and the soul, the editor offers these volumes of two-part sacred music as his contribution to the service of the church, hoping that it may touch accordant notes in the human heart, and that the response may be a harmony.

EXCELLENT SACRED CANTATAS

THE MESSAGE ETERNAL

By J. TRUMAN WOLCOTT

Price, 75 cents

Requiring about seventy minutes for its rendition, this cantata is sure to prove a great favorite with choirs and choruses. There are effective solos for all voices and stirring chorus numbers. It is rich with melody—it has musicianly and interest-sustaining qualities and it is well within the range of the average singer.

DAVID, THE SHEPHERD BOY

By GEO. F. ROOT

Price, 75 cents

This splendid cantata which tells the story of David's life most graphically with a musical setting is exceptionally beautiful and effective. The cantata may be sung in concert style or it may be given in dramatized form with striking effect. There are special numbers for a children's chorus, although these may be omitted if desired. However, where a junior and senior choir are available this cantata may be given an extremely satisfying rendition.

THE LIGHT EVERLASTING

By JAS. R. GILLETTE

Price, 60 cents

The simplicity of the music in this cantata and the number of good strong chorus effects make it a work that is in great favor with innumerable choirs. It is rather unusual in that while it is not exceptionally difficult, it has a full rich character and is evangelistic in spirit. It requires about twenty minutes for rendition.

THE GOOD SAMARITAN

By KENNETH E. RUNKEL

Price, 75 cents

Taking the story of the well known parable as a theme the compiler of the text, Bernice H. Runkel, and the composer have united in presenting one of the most important lessons of the New Testament in such form that the beauty of its moral is emphasized by this effective musical setting.

PRAYER, PROMISE AND PRAISE

By W. H. NEIDLINGER

Price, $1.00

Orchestra parts may be rented

Here is a fine cantata with text taken from the Psalms. It has effective chorus numbers, beautiful solos and a duet for soprano and alto or baritone. About an hour is required for its rendition.

THE COMING OF RUTH

By WM. T. NOSS

Price, $1.00

A dramatic cantata requiring about 90 minutes for rendition. It is in six scenes and is suitable for choral conventions, singing societies and church choirs. There are solos for all the parts and the chorus numbers are effective and beautiful without being difficult. This cantata is full of dramatic incident and human sympathy, and musically conveys much that could not be expressed in words.

STANDARD ORATORIOS AND CANTATAS

Careful editing and clear print, are features that highly recommend the Presser Edition of these standard works.

JEPHTHAH AND HIS DAUGHTER

By P. G. HULL

Price, 75 cents

A favorite cantata intensely dramatic in its situations. The story of Jephthah and his daughter is one of thrilling interest, and the composer has turned it to good advantage in this work. The average volunteer choir would have no difficuky in presenting a highly satisfying rendition of this beautiful cantata.

BUILDING OF THE TEMPLE

By GEO. F. ROOT

Price, 50 cents

This is not the usual cantata form but rather an effective grouping of songs, hymns and easy anthems for a Sunday School, based on the events connected with the story of the building of the temple. There are numbers for the entire school to sing and numbers for soloists and an assisting choir. Although especially adaptable for use by Sunday Schools it may be given effectively by volunteer choirs.

THE REDEEMER

By JULIAN EDWARDS

Price, $1.00

Orchestra parts may be rented

A dignified and very melodious church cantata adapted for use anytime in the Christian year. Each of its four parts: The Advent, The Nativity, The Crucifixion, The Resurrection and Ascension also may be given separately at the proper season. The entire cantata runs about fifty minutes.

THE WORD OF GOD

By CHARLES GILBERT SPROSS

Price, 75 cents

This splendid cantata for four solo voices and chorus gives both the soloists and chorus ample opportunity to display their vocal artistry. Although written in a true musicianly style, every bit of it has been composed with a view to its easy rendition and practical effect.
